

College Information on the Web

Judi Kusik - College Counselor 310 263-4425

Sylvia Walker – College Technician

College/Career Center

Room 7-1 310 263-4463

www.fastweb.com This is a free scholarship search that matches talents and interests with money for college, The service is free. There is some advertising involved and student's must say "no" if they do not wish to sign up for any of the products.

www.universityofcalifornia.edu/admissions
The main sight to apply and find information about University of California (UC) campuses www.csumentor.edu Students of any grade may start a portfolio on csumentor.They may also answer some questions and "MENTOR" will match them with one of the California State University (CSU) campuses that will meet their needs. Where you apply to the CSU campuses.

www.californiacolleges.edu A sight to explore all colleges in California

www.collegeboard.com
The College Board has information about various universities and colleges. You may also register for the SAT, Subject Tests, and CSS/Financial Aid Profile. The College Board highly recommends that you handle all your registration with them on line. Fee Waivers for SAT and Subject Tests may be used on line, www.act.org Use this site for ACT registration and career planning information. Fee waivers must be used with paper applications.

www.fafsa.ed.gov If you wish to apply for government financial aid, you may complete your FAFSA on line during your senior year between January 1 and March 2. Do not forget to also do the Cal Grant GPA Verification Form that will be available in the College/ Career Center.

www.csuenglishsuccess.org Preparation for English placement test for California State University campuses.

www.csumathsuccess.org Preparation for Math placement test for California State University campuses.

Most colleges and universities also have a website. Type in complete name of school. (For example, UCLA would be University of California, Los Angeles.)